

7521101224.txt

Please reconsider classifying the the isp's as common carriers. These companies have a long history of making decisions that are against the benefit of their customers and innovation. Many of with the people find commercially and ethically unreasonable.