

7521101685.txt

Please keep net neutrality. However you need to do it just do it. If all it takes is to declare the net part of telecommunications, then just do it. And please realize that while people are in lobbyist firms and then in government regulations seats, the FOCUS needs to shift as well. No more shilling for the corporations please while filling government seats.