

A neutral internet has become a vital facet of our liberties in this country and in countries around the globe. It is protected by our First Amendment rights and would be considered by most Americans as a tyrannical act of suppression. Since the very beginning, the freedom to exchange information has been a fundamental right for the people in this country. Please do not change that now.