

7521101867.txt

Please, refrain from changing the regulations governing internet use. So few things are available to citizens without regard to wealth, race, sex or religious attachment. As is... it is the most educational tool in history. As proposed, it will become less and less available to "every man".
Thank you, for your time and attention.
Royce Ann Kent ... regular person.