

7521101870.txt

The internet needs to remain free. It's not fair to take the money of big corporations while you leave the small guys out to dry. Our country already caters to large business, don't take the only thing we have left as the 1% tries to weed it out.