

7521101981.txt

do not approve rm-11708, it will disrupt the long standing amateur radio community operating practices and protocols in place which have worked fine for many, many years. There has been no serious discussion with the amateur radio community on this matter and many problems will immediately arise from its passage.