

7521102370.txt

Classify broadband internet as a common carrier service! This allows for more economic growth for smaller business who do not have to pay for access to potential customers, but also allows educators to show YouTube videos or other websites to students to enhance their learning.