

7521103287.txt

Reclassify the internet as a common carrier. Please don't allow big business to determine what I as an American can see on the web, and please don't allow them to make it harder for small business to get their information out there! As an internet service provider... all they need to do is provide me with access to the web not determine what is easier for me to view on the web.