

7521103328.txt

I believe the FCC's proposal is directly counter to the best interests of the American public and is a near-wholesale sellout to the interests of the largest corporate telecommunications companies. I urge the FCC to scrap this proposal and focus on creating a rule/regulation that prevents any type of preference for one type of internet traffic over another. Thank you.