

7521104041.txt

I believe the merger of Comcast and Time Warner reduces competition where it is already too lackluster to produce the normally healthy, widespread benefits of capitalism. Competition, being a necessary part of the equation for a healthy capitalist society, must be maintained. This merger does the opposite, and should be blocked.