

7521104223.txt

The iInternet was created as an open system allowing access to countless troves of information. Allowing business to move in and monetize and prioritize an individual's access to the Internet is wrong. Please keep the Internet free and neutral, so all have equal opportunity to reap its benefits.