

7521104308.txt

I'm commenting to urge the FCC to block the proposed merger of Comcast and Time Warner. The lack of viable choices in internet service providers as well as cable providers prevents any real consumer choice in the marketplace. The proposed merger will create a company that has little to no incentive for service investment/upgrades, keeping prices down, and degrading Net Neutrality.