

7521104312.txt

Comcast and Time Warner should not be allowed to merge, Competition is already scarce among internet service providers, I myself can only choose from a single company (Comcast) for my service. In a field with this level of competition, it should be either more competitive, or heavily regulated as a common carrier or other such utility.