

7521104434.txt

There are no proposed or realistically expected public benefits to this merger. It will reduce competition and further consolidate control of media. The very purpose of the FCC is to prevent mergers like this.