

7521104554.txt

Save net neutrality! ISP corporations have no authority to pick and choose what goes through with or without charge. ISPs should be considered a utility like electricity ( electric companies cannot charge you more for using a certain device )