

7521104583.txt

Please reclassify Internet Service Providers as Title II: Telecommunications Companies. This will allow for Net Neutrality on a constitutional basis. It is also what the Supreme Court recommended you do. Without this reclassification you are allowing corporations the power to extort money from businesses and to stifle innovation and idea sharing. A small business owner who has a website deserves the same data throughput as Google on the same pipes. Thank you for listening to your citizenry as you were appointed to do.