

7521104770.txt

I wholeheartedly urge the FCC to throw away any plans that allow Internet service providers to charge for preferential treatment. They must treat all internet access the same.

All internet service providers must be treated as a common carrier telecommunications service, and I urge the FCC to reclassify them accordingly.