

7521105050.txt

I am strongly against the merger of Comcast and Time Warner. This merger would allow this company to form a monopoly on internet, phone, and cable television service across the nation and would set precedence for other large businesses to do same. The only way that capitalism and democracy can coexist is if there is diversity in the services offered. For emphasis, myself and my family are strongly against this merger.