

7521105351.txt

The main concept of internet provides to change the playing field is so they can have a monopoly and gain more profit. Bit competition and small businesses are proven to increase economical efficiency the most, they are the backbones of America. I do not stand for allowing large internet providers to "play us".