

7521105444.txt

This is appeal to not allow the internet to be monopolized and controlled as the result of this merger. The financial backlash against this merger could be devastating for Comcast/Verision. I, for one, will be looking for alternative forms of non-internet related entertainment as the internet will be dead to me if it becomes a "pay to play" venue. People are ingenious and will find alternatives to a corporation controlled internet.