

7521105547.txt

I am fully AGAINST the merger of Time Warner and Comcast. I am currently a Time Warner customer unfortunately and at least once every couple months I have to spend HOURS on the phone to fix numerous issues that rarely, if ever, have anything to do with lack of payment. These companies have both been rated the worst customer service on more than one occasion and a majority of their customers are very unhappy regularly. Actually, please enact rules for these companies immediately!