

7521105672.txt

I urge you to keep the net as it currently is. Net neutrality is incredibly important. The internet is an open forum where the last bastion of freedom lies. No website should have priority over another. Stopping net neutrality is a bastardization of capitalism; allowing companies to run a service that does not belong to them.