

7521105877.txt

I support modifying the regulations to eliminate the baud-rate designation for occupied bandwidth to allow current and future encoding schemes that would otherwise fit the desired bandwidth, but are prohibited by baud-rate limitations.

I believe the ARRL petition and amendment fully explains the technical aspects of this requested change.

Respectfully,

Rick Maihart
NM3G