

7521107746.txt

Reclassify broadband internet as a common carrier telecommunications service. The internet is perhaps the most wonderful thing that has happened to our race. The only reason why I used the qualifier 'perhaps' is the inherent danger involved with organizations vying for control of information. Net Neutrality is vital to the growth of our civilization, please do not let a single entity gain control over this wonderful creation.