

7521108493.txt

As a citizen I demand the FCC classify broad band internet as a telecommunications service. The disintegration of the internet as it is will do a great disservice to the global community which has largely been made possible by the internet. Preferential access speed to information WILL be abused for profit at the cost of the free flowing exchange of ideas and culture.