

7521109381.txt

I would like to see ISPs remain as they are today. They should not gain more power over content providers. They should simply serve any and all content in an objective fashion. They don't deserve the extra money ??bandwidth is not that expensive. Content providers don't deserve the punishment. Please maintain a truly neutral Internet. And stop hiring former Comcast employees to take part in making this decision.