

7521109438.txt

Please do not change the way the internet is accessed in the United States. We do not need the ISPs to control how data is streamed through the internet. It should be a public utility. The fact that it has been allowed to be monopolized by few companies shows me as a citizen that committees such as the FCC care more about corporations. Please prove me wrong. Net neutrality needs to be here to stay.