

7521109473.txt

Please classify the ISP as common carriers. They should not decide what bits come to me and slow down ones that in competition with their services. I also believe this is a slippery slope that could change the entire internet business and put a lot of people out of work. Do the right thing and uphold net neutrality