

7521109767.txt

I urge the FCC to classify broadband Internet as a title II telecommunications service. Like many other concerned U.S. citizens, I am adamant about preserving net neutrality, and I believe that ISPs should not be given the ability to preference one kind or source of data over another.

Thank you for your time.