

7521110445.txt

It is imperative for ISPs to be classified as Title II Common Carriers and for net neutrality to be preserved. The United States is still at the frontier of innovation but we will lose our competitive advantage and consumer protection if the ISPs have free reign to control the flow of data. Thank you.