

7521110554.txt

If you do not allow net neutrality to survive, then internet providers will have a monopoly upon the rights to whom will be delivered to customers fastest. It will make young internet start ups impossible, and cause the already high cost of the internet rocket up even more. Please, please do not allow this violation of our First Amendment rights to free speech to pass.