

7521111635.txt

Please keep net neutrality. You should classify broadband internet as a title II common carrier telecommunications service. Internet is becoming as much a part of "utilities" as electricity and water, and we shouldn't give control of it to private companies.