

7521112015.txt

The internet is an amazing resource and I would like it to stay like that. Please classify the internet as a title II common carrier telecommunications service and stop the greedy telecom companies from restricting it any further than they already have.