

7521112120.txt

I support classifying internet service providers as common carriers under Title II of the Communications Act. Having a neutral internet allows new startup companies to grow unhindered and contribute high-paying jobs to our economy.