

7521112353.txt

The failure of the FCC to designate ISPs as common carriers is proof that, despite rhetoric, the Obama Administration is just as beholden to corporate interests as its Republican counterparts. Absolutely outrageous, and the blatant disregard for the common people in favor of the pocket-lining lobbyists is disgusting.