

7521113592.txt

To the FCC:

Please grow a spine and do your job. Your job is to protect the internet from companies like Comcast, not to hand it over on a platter. We the people paid for the internet through huge tax subsidies to ISPs. Instead of investing those subsidies in infrastructure, ISPs pocketed the cash and invested nothing. They cannot be trusted with the internet. ISPs must be classified as common carriers before they destroy the open internet in their quest for profit.