

7521113941.txt

classify broadband internet to a title II telecommunications service! Seriously, this is a system made for equality for all. When that is jeopardized, it becomes an uneven playing field, not even worth using. A library doesn't limit types of books you get, or change the quality of those books. You have free access to data, whenever. Keep the internet this way too.