

7521114086.txt

Please reinstate net neutrality. It is fallacious to believe that screwing over internet consumers and service providers for a few internet providers is a model to stimulate growth. Doing so may cause our economy to tank even more, and you don't want the blame for another economic slump.