

7521114239.txt

To whom it may concern,

Please help and secure net neutrality by classifying the internet as a telecommunications service. Internet service providers should not be allowed to discriminate based on content the speed in which one can access data.

Keep the internet an even playing field.

Sincerely,
Eyal Frank