

7521114247.txt

It is imperative that data of a selected type not be prioritized based on origin or routing information over data of the same time.

Prioritization between types shall also be declared openly and be defined in agreements between ISP's and end users. ISP's shall not be able to privilege one data type over the other without openly disclosing and keeping accurate logs of said prioritization.