

7521114351.txt

It is essential that the Internet remain an open and free place. It is not owned by anyone (especially telecomm companies). Allowing telecomm companies to change speeds based on what you are doing will be the death of that freedom. Please make the Internet a common carrier service.