

7521114836.txt

I would like for you to reclassift broadband internet as title II common carrier telecommunications service. I feel that anything otherwise will be a negativrle act on society in terms of future financial costs on the consumer and a limited way of interacting with the world on the world wide web. I will be extremely displeased if this matter is not heard over again and the stiff complications will be propped and and decision reversed, as is best for the popul ace.

Thank You