

7521115299.txt

I'm currently a full time student. I take all of my classes online and that's what i plan on continuing to do. If this proposed plan were to take effect it would essentially remove this option for me. Not to mention all the other people taking schooling online. College is already expensive for people. Enacting this will cause college to be that much more expensive. Please do not let this go through it will ruin the internet and many other internet related resources for people.