

7521115893.txt

I implore you to reclassify broadband internet as a common carrier telecommunications service for both business and recreational reasons. Not doing so continues to allow government sponsored monopolies/duopolies to run rampant and stifle new ideas/businesses. Continuing in this anti-competitive manner is an affront to all that those who developed and maintain the free internet as we knew it in its origins.