

7521115998.txt

I believe it would benefit every citizen that you classify Broadband Internet as a Title II Telecommunications Service. Net Neutrality is very important and removing it would only cause harm to the consumer by allowing Internet Service Providers to over charge/increase prices for services that we already have with no benefit to the user.