

7521116321.txt

The internet should stay an open platform. Reclassify the internet as a telecommunications service and keep a level playing field for competition in the U.S. on the web