

7521116330.txt

Broadband internet should be reclassified as a telecommunications service. Giant corporations such as Comcast have no interest in the thousands of small businesses that rely on the internet being a level playing field in order to remain in the marketplace. They have an interest in wiping out competition and making money. Please keep this from happening; it's not even good for our economy. Thank you for your consideration.