

7521116518.txt

It is wrong to sell power over something like the internet to corporations. The plans to limit the internet is no different than Delta Airlines restricting United Airlines employees from flying on their planes. Please do the right thing and help fight the idea of corporations only needing enough money and lobbyists to do whatever they want. This is not the backbone our great nation was built on.