

7521116873.txt

The only thing more abysmal than the demise of net neutrality is the lack of attention it is getting. The entire FCC needs an overhaul if it's going to do its job to protect the airwaves and preserve them for the people. Please wield whatever small powers you have in your current incarnation to put a stop to these invasive companies who seek preferential treatment for profit at the cost of AMERICAN CONSUMERS.