

7521116936.txt

The internet is for everyone, and it should remain that way. Stop killing it, and make the ISPs common carriers. Look at how other countries handle it. America is always behind the curve on technology. Don't set us further back by killing Net-Neutrality.